

GYMNASIUMS NEWSLETTER

Thanks!

Thanks to all those who turned up to the bonfire night. There were about 200 people there so it went a long way towards helping out CSSC finances. Thanks again to both ladies and gents.

Thanks also to those who have paid their subs. We will be sending a letter out to those who haven't paid so if you are one of those very few people get the cash in please.

One final thing about money..... Wendy, the club secretary, will be issuing slips to those who have been fined this season. Pay up please lads. The club should not be penalised for you losing it on the pitch.

Finances

Clearly things are going well this season with regard to our move into the clubhouse. Finances are on the up and this is in part due to the fact that now everyone is beginning to use the place as your clubhouse.

Don't forget if you ant to hire the place for private functions it only costs you £60. This is to pay for the bar staff, electricity , heating etc . Non members have to pay £120

Any Ideas???????

We need to use the club so any ideas you have let us know.

Tarts and vicars? fancy dress? Karaoke?

Ladies???.. Come on !!..

We are all part of the same team...Ideas to the committee please.

Volunteers

The football section and CSSC are always on the lookout for people to help organise events and to run socials. If you think you can help contact Tony Hewson, Gymns CSSC rep

Gymns Committee Info

The committee are currently engaged in applying for chartered status for the club which means we should be able to apply for some of the more substantial grants from the Football Foundation.

We are also trying to finish off the clubhouse fittings and a few other bits and pieces.

All of us are also involved in selling raffle tickets!!! This is where we have a chance to get some much needed cash into the club so the rent can be paid so try your best to get rid of all your tickets. If you need any more just see any member of the committee

Cheers folks

Rob's Royalties

Luke's lovely view.

After bursting onto the first team scene in dramatic form, Luke Fisher aka "The Rosy Cheeked Assassin" has sadly left for Uni. Luke sent the Editor a lovely letter to let him know how he was settling in. He enclosed the picture (left) of his new flat. Luke says the best thing is he got a top floor flat which is great as he really enjoys his privacy.

Will Ciaran "Pecker" McNulty ever overcome his fear of footballs ?

Look at the fear in those eyes, it's like someone just told him he might be playing the likes of Jurby next season and STILL won't be allowed out on Friday night.

Priceless!

The Club would like to say a huge thank you to long serving ex player Graham Ashley. Graham has recently purchased new socks and shorts for the entire combination team. After retiring from football at the end of last season Graham has struggled to fill his Saturday afternoons with anything half as pleasurable as gracing the Combi left back position with a style not too dissimilar to Stuart Pearce. B & Q has a "shelf life" Graham, so get yourself back soon... In fact Graham was recently arrested after a visit to B & Q. In his statement Graham said "I was minding my own business when some fella in an orange apron approached me and asked if I wanted decking. So I got a few quick smacks in and left"

POSITION VACANT

Position – Gymnasium AFC are looking for a Saturday afternoon tea lady.

Bonuses – The possibility of getting to see two dozen naked men crammed into 6 showers.

If anyone knows of anyone who may be interested in this position please let a member of the committee know. The successful applicant will have the challenge and enjoyment of running their own weekly shop at the Club.

Ciaran "Pecker" McNulty recently made another appearance on the cover of Vogue magazine. Ciaran, younger brother of Gok Wan from BBC's "How To Look Good Naked" has been pondering his future at the Club for some time and Party boy Ciaran has always expressed an interest of playing for a London club. In a statement released two days ago Ciaran said "I have looked at many Clubs who have all expressed an interest in me and at present top of my list if Tottenham Hotspur as the guy that I want to partner up front and who is scoring all the goals is Bent."

Ciaran's older brother Gok.

It's that time of year again, when we ask you, the general public to put your hands in your pockets and dig deep for a good cause. This year is no exception. Ciaran McNulty (pictured right) leads the chase as bags of grain, flour and rice rain down over the Tromode area. Ciaran who has suffered years of malnutrition, osteoporosis and the early signs of arthritis needs your help. He runs miles each day for items we take for granted. His right wrist is visibly deteriorating at a rapid rate and just 7p per day can help Ciaran get back on the road to recovery. You can make secure payments online at
